2023 MINNESOTA TWINS MEDIA GUIDE

MIKE RADCLIFF

He wasn't ever the loudest voice in the room, but he certainly was THE MOST RESPECTED.

-Terry Ryan,
former General Manager

He's the definition of how you can impact people, how you can impact who you work with... HE WAS THE GOLD STANDARD for literally everybody.

-Sean Johnson,
VP of Amateur Scouting

When people think about the Twins' scouting culture, most people will say a lot of kind things, to this day. We take no credit for it. IT'S WHAT MIKE STARTED [36] YEARS AGO.

-Sean Johnson,
VP of Amateur Scouting

You could ask Mike about just about any player in the country, and he'd tell you his life story, where he went to school, his strengths and weaknesses. It was amazing... NO ONE WAS EVER GOING TO OUTWORK HIM.

-Rob Antony,
VP & Special Assistant to Baseball Operations

Mike had a knack of being able to decipher what a guy's going to do when he's 23, 24 and 25. He probably was THE SMARTEST MAN IN THE ROOM in almost any occasion. And he knew what he was doing, and he had just one of those instincts that 'This guy's going to be something.' And he was correct on many fronts when we were picking our players.

-Terry Ryan,
former General Manager

HOME UNIFORM

The first and most beloved professional sports mark in Minnesota, the interlocking "T" and "C" is ubiquitous with community and civic pride – a symbol not just of the Twins, but of our state. Staying true to the historical integrity of the hand-drawn mark used since 1961, this refined look will carry the iconic "TC" forward for the next sixty years.

Paying homage to the original "Twins" script, the distinctive "T" is separated from the connected, cursive "w-i-n-s," while – in keeping with club tradition first introduced during the World Championship season of 1987 – the "win" is underlined. The "Twins" script returns to red, as it was on the primary home uniform from 1972-2014.

Player numbers return to the front of the home uniform, but – in a first for the home whites – it appears in navy to offset the "Twins" script, in a vivid juxtaposition of all three primary colors.

The player's name and number – delivered in the Twins' exclusive new font – are presented in offsetting navy (name) and red (number) upon the uniform's crisp white.

Linking to the fabled mark of Minnie & Paul within the state outline, the left sleeve features a navy Minnesota silhouette adorned with the club's red North Star representing the location of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

First seen on Rod Carew en route to his 1972 American League batting title and reintroduced on a throwback worn by Joe Mauer during his 2009 AL Most Valuable Player campaign, the sleeve and pant piping is a tri-color pattern of navy, white and red stripes.

ROAD UNIFORM

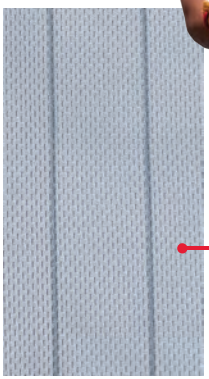

Celebrating the Twins' championship heritage, the arched, block "MINNESOTA" script returns, now in the club's exclusive new font and – in a team first – delivered in striking navy. In further nods to club history, the "S" features the power serifs of the Target Field-era "Twins" script, while the "T" is inspired by the heritage "TC" mark.

As the first professional sports organization to take the field bearing their state's name, the Twins are proud to be Minnesota's Major League Baseball team. The sibling mark of the legacy "TC," with a white "M" and red North Star dynamically set upon the distinctive navy backdrop, this new look is an instantly iconic representation of the Twins and our state for Minnesota's next generation of champions – and the team's first on-field "M" hat since 2013.

Minnesota silhouette adorned with a red North Star denoting the Twin Cities.

The iconic gray-and-pinstripe motif of Twins lore is reborn through a modern lens, with a subtle gray-on-gray look that accentuates the prevalent red, white and navy palette.

A staple of Twins road jerseys since 1973, the player's number remains on the uniform front, but now in the club's exclusive new font – and in red, offsetting the navy of the "Minnesota" script for a vivid color juxtaposition.

HOME ALT UNIFORM

The refined "TC" adorns the home alternate hat, but – in a first for a Twins on-field uniform – the mark is a singular color, with both letters appearing in the legacy cream upon a navy backdrop to complete the uniform's striking two-tone aesthetic.

Celebrating Minneapolis and St. Paul in true Twins fashion, the left sleeve features the "M" and "STP" marks that have adorned the jerseys of Minnie and Paul, respectively, since 1961 – now emblazoned upon crisscrossed flags to represent the shared history of baseball within our twin cities.

The only two-color uniform in the system, the alternate home look reintroduces the Twins' legacy cream – in a dynamic two-tone cohesion with the club's new shade of boldly dark navy blue.

Proudly becoming the first professional team to spell out "Twin Cities" on a jersey, this uniform is a celebration of the club's heritage and continued legacy in Minneapolis and St. Paul; a subtle water ripple effect can be drawn from the bottom of the letters in "Cities" as a nod to the Mississippi River.

Reflecting the uniform's two-tone aesthetic, the sleeve piping utilizes a singular navy stripe to create a two-color effect, while the pant leg also features a lone navy line.

MINNESOTA HOME/ROAD ALT UNIFORM

Evoking the alluring mystique of a Minnesota night sky, the new alternate uniform – meant for both home and road – is a majestic canvas for the Twins' new shade of boldly dark navy blue.

The left sleeve features the refined "TC," with the iconic white "T" and red "C" set upon the dark navy.

For the first time in club history, this alternate look allows the Twins to wear the word "Minnesota" at home. With no uniform elements outlined in a secondary color or accentuated by a drop shadow, key visuals - such as the lettering - vibrantly resonate within the red, white and navy palette.

Consistent with the Twins' new uniform collection, the player's number is on the front of the jersey, delivered in the club's exclusive new font; the vibrant red offsets the white of the "MINNESOTA" script for a vivid juxtaposition of all three primary colors.

For the first time in team history, the Twins have an alternate uniform that can be worn both at home (with the white pants shown here) or on the road (with the pinstriped gray pants); both pants feature the legacy piping.

I.M.D.BALDELLI

Rocco grew up in Woonsocket, Rhode Island until he was about 12 years old, when his family moved to Cumberland (RI). Cumberland is the same hometown as filmmakers, the Farrelly brothers (Peter and Bobby), who created Dumb and Dumber, Kingpin, There's Something About Mary, Me, Myself & Irene, and many others.

The brothers, who are known for having celebrity athlete cameos — typically with New England area ties — in their movies (Cam Neely, Johnny Damon, Rogers Clemens, Tom Brady, etc), told Rocco that he would somehow feature in their 2005 film Fever Pitch.

In the movie, when Jimmy Fallon and Drew Barrymore's characters attend their first Boston Red Sox game, in the background, the PA announcer says, "Now batting, number five, Rocco Baldelli." In the scene, the Red Sox are playing on Opening Day against the Texas Rangers — a team that Rocco never played for in his career; in fact, he was playing for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays at that time.

I, ROBOT

When Hank played for the Houston Astros in 2015, he would do the infamous robot dance from Chappelle's Show during the team's Postseason run. On old YouTube clips, Hank can be seen in the background of the dugout during Astros home run celebrations doing the dance. When he was hired by the Twins, he was asked by a staffer if he would ever break out the dance and he said, since he was now a coach he will probably retire it, but maybe if the Twins win the World Series.

CANTE MAN

Matt is known for his collection of PEZ dispensers – including ones of Woody and Buzz Lightyear from Toy Story – and his consumption of PEZ candy during games; Matt admitted that he had a five-pound, six-flavor bag of PEZ unopened and ready prior to the start of 2022 minor league spring training, and that he consumes, on average, three PEZ per game (roughly one every three innings), regardless if he's pitching or not, so that five-pound bag will last him about 100 games...his favorite PEZ flavors are, in order from best to worst, lemon, grape, orange, cherry, strawberry and raspberry...his PEZ habit started around 2019.

PERSONAL: José Eugenio De León...Twitter: @JDL_87...Instagram:@jdl_87... spent three seasons at Southern University (LA), combining to go 17-8 with a 3.50 ERA (221.0 IP, 86 ER), 86 walks and 248 strikeouts...is one of 18 Southern University products to play in the major leagues, including Lou Brock and Vida Blue... when home in Puerto Rico, he likes going to the beach and reading...he's a big fan of author Dan Brown, thanks, in part, to studying history in college...he read Brown's Origin this offseason, but Inferno remains his favorite book...loves to stream shows on Netflix, Hulu and Amazon Prime...his favorite show is HBO's Game of Thrones, and his favorite character is Samwell Tarly...held a baseball camp in his hometown over the 2018 All-Star break, his first camp ever...hosted 92 campers, including some with special needs, and may tailor the next one to kids with special needs...received fan mail asking him to sign baseball cards depicting a player of the same name from the 1970s...shared the photos on Twitter and sent back the cards with one of his own, inscribed with "This is me!"...organized a GoFundMe campaign to raise funds for his native Puerto Rico following the destruction caused by Hurricane Maria in 2017...including his own donation, he raised nearly $10,000 and donated supplies such as water, diapers and food...was on the island when Maria made landfall...the Rays front office supported his decision to be there for his family when he was faced with the choice of evacuating...José and his family mistook the eye of the storm for its conclusion and were trapped at his aunt's house due to flooding...he was able to depart the island 10 days later...while with the Dodgers, word reached legendary broadcaster Vin Scully that José had been racing the clock to reach the majors before his retirement...Vin then arranged a meeting and signed a picture of the two of them as a gift...José took English classes throughout grade school in Puerto Rico, but was unable to carry a conversation when he came to the U.S. to attend Southern University...his very first college course was a history class with a 92-year-old professor with a southern accent so thick that most of his peers dropped the class...José, however, moved to the front row, determined that if he could understand that professor's English, he could understand anyone.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Minnesota marks sixth organization (Los Angeles-NL - 2013-16, Tampa Bay - 2017-19, Cincinnati - 2020-21, Boston - 2021 and Toronto - 2022)...selected to pitch for Team Puerto Rico in the 2023 WBC...missed 2018 and part of 2019 while recovering from Tommy John surgery on right elbow...pitched in the 2017 World Baseball Classic for Puerto Rico for the second round, replacing Jenrry Mejia; started against Venezuela and did not allow a run in 2.2 IP, with five strikeouts...made major league debut on September 4, 2016 vs. San Diego for the Dodgers at the age of 24...was a Baseball America Class Triple-A All-Star with Oklahoma City in 2016...named 2015 California League All-Star for High-A Rancho Cucamonga...named 2014 Pioneer League Pitcher of the Year with Ogden.

NUMBERS GAME

José has worn number 87 throughout his major league career. His favorite number is 15 but when he was coming up through professional baseball, a teammate with more experience always had that number. He landed on 87, because his birthday is August 7 and 8+7=15. He has worn that number with the Dodgers, Rays and Reds.

2020: In his first season in the Reds organization, made five relief appearances during six stints on the Reds' 28-man roster...threw 1.0+ inning in three of his five appearances, including a season-high 2.0 innings Sept. 12 at St. Louis...Sept. 9 at Wrigley Field, the native and resident of Puerto Rico wore uniform No. 21, instead of his usual No. 87, in recognition of Roberto Clemente Day...while on the injured list, he traveled to the Wild Card Series at Atlanta as part of the Reds' 40-player Postseason pool...following the season, played for Caguas in the Puerto Rico Winter League (4 G, 2-1, 3.18 ERA, 17.0 IP, 8 H, 10 BB, 31 K, .145 opp. AVG).

2019: Began the season on the Tampa Bay Rays' injured list recovering from March 2018 Tommy John surgery to repair the torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow...made 11 rehab appearances for High-A Charlotte and Double-A Durham before he was reinstated from the IL July 2...went 806 days between major league games (May 29, 2017 at TEX & Aug. 14, 2019 at SD)...earned his only win of the season in a 9-8 victory Aug. 29 at Houston...made two starts for Durham in the International League's Governors' Cup finals, including Game 1...Nov. 20, just minutes before the Rule 5 Draft reserve lists were due, was acquired by the Reds for cash and a player to be named later.

2018: After two spring training games, was diagnosed with a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow...had season-ending surgery March 13 and spent the year on the Rays' injured list.

2017: Spent the entire season in the minor leagues aside from a one-day stint with the Rays on May 29 at Texas...pitched in relief that night and earned the 10-8 win by throwing 2.2 innings and 69 pitches, the most by a Rays reliever since Chris Archer threw 79 on Sept. 13, 2012 at Baltimore...became the 11th pitcher in franchise history to win his Rays debut as a reliever and the first since Andrew Bellatti on May 9, 2015 vs. Texas...in March, was added to Puerto Rico's roster for the second round of the World Baseball Classic and threw 2.2 scoreless innings (5 K) in a start vs. Venezuela...his strikeout victims included José Altuve (2x), Robinson Chirinos, Alcides Escobar and Ender Inciarte.

2016: Made his MLB debut on Sept. 4 vs. San Diego for the Dodgers at the age of 24...in a 7-4 win, became the youngest Dodgers pitcher to win his major league debut since Nathan Eovaldi on Aug. 6, 2011 at Arizona (6.0 IP, 5H, 4R/3ER, 9K)...was the fifth pitcher since records became available in 1913 to win his debut as a starter while recording no walks and at least nine strikeouts, the first since Stephen Strasburg on June 8, 2010 vs. Pittsburgh...became the first Dodgers pitcher to win the first two appearances of his career as a starter since Kazuhisa Ishii in 2002... was a Baseball America Class Triple-A All-Star with Oklahoma City...following the season, was rated by Baseball America as the 29th-best overall prospect in the minor leagues, the No. 3 prospect in the Dodgers organization and No. 3 prospect in the PCL.

2015: Named California League All-Star for High-A Rancho Cucamonga...his 163 strikeouts for Rancho Cucamonga and Double-A Tulsa tied for fourth-highest in the minor leagues...following the season, his changeup was rated by Baseball America as the best in the Texas League.

2014: Named Pioneer League Pitcher of the Year...ended the season with four starts at Low-A Great Lakes...in his second start there, recorded 14 strikeouts, breaking the club's single-game record held by Clayton Kershaw (12).

2013: Split first professional season between AZL Dodgers and Rookie-Ogden, combining to strike out 53 batters in 53.0 innings, making 14 appearances (13 starts).

The scene in the movie where Sandra Bullock's character interrupts high school football practice to help Oher on his protection skills, Farmer is playing the quarterback in the scene. Farmer isn't the quarterback in the entire season, but is for all the actual football plays. "They needed someone who could throw," Farmer said. Kyle is the one in the yellow practice jersey, and you can hear him calling plays at the start of the scene.

CATCHING ON

Kyle grew up playing shortstop his entire life but was drafted by the Dodgers as a catcher. For his first game in pro ball, he put the shin guards on backwards. Former major league catcher Damon Berryhill was his manager. Kyle asked him why he let him do that and didn't tell him they were backwards and Damon said that he just wanted to see if he could figure it out.

THE NICK GORDON LP

Nick enjoys writing and producing hip hop music in his spare time and has been a hobby of his since the eighth grade. Nick's older half-brother, Dee, introduced his music to his Seattle teammates (2018-20), who would blast Nick's music in the Mariners clubhouse. Nick estimated that about six or seven of Dee's teammates (including Dee himself), used Nick's music for their walk-up songs. Former teammate, Miguel Sanó, used the song "GOAT" as his walk-up song with the Twins in 2022. Nick's music can be found on most platforms, including Apple Music, SoundCloud, Spotify, and many more.

When Sonny was traded from Cincinnati to the Twins prior to the 2022 season, he got his sons acclimated to his new team by showing them the movie Little Big League. His sons enjoyed their time in Cincy and didn't understand why they had to leave but watching the movie helped their transition.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME

Pablo's father introduced him to baseball. His dad played amateur ball when he was in college in Venezuela. He was also Pablo's coach, taking him to train/practice and often taking him to watch Winter Ball games. When Pablo reached 14-15 years old, his dad asked him if he wanted to pursue a baseball career. His dad told him that if he went that route, he would have to sacrifice a lot and work the hardest he's ever worked in his life. Pablo did so while also prepping for a college education as a back-up plan.

EARNED RUNS RULE

The determination of earned-runs is as follows:

An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, a reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

SAVE RULE

Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
- (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
- (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or
- (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

It is considered a 'blown save' when a pitcher who has entered a game in a save situation departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead. If the save situation still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. And, if he has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, even though the save situation may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

In fact, Joe's love of bikes goes beyond mountain bikes as he rides an old used 1946 Schwinn to the ballpark. He says it's a good warm-up for his day and he lives close enough where he can usually get one song in before his arrival.

DID YOU Know?

...the longest home run ever hit by a Twin was estimated at 520 feet. Harmon Killebrew crushed the three-run blast off California righty Lew Burdette, which landed in the sixth row of the upper deck at Metropolitan Stadium on June 3, 1967. The ball cracked the seat, and was later painted orange to commemorate the event. The seat is now located in the Mall of America — the former site of "Met" Stadium — bolted to a wall in the amusement park, marking the height and position where the ball would have landed in the upper deck.

WASHINGTON AND MINNESOTA FRANCHISE

The Minnesota Twins trace their roots as a major-league franchise to the 1901 Washington Senators, but they go back even farther as a minor-league team. The Western League began in 1894 with aspirations of becoming a major league, a status it achieved seven years later. Most of the Midwestern cities were left behind in the transition. For example, a St. Paul team owned by Charles Comiskey moved to Chicago, where it still exists as the White Sox. Several cities, including Minneapolis, had their teams disband and be replaced by ones in larger, eastern cities. However, the Kansas City team, owned and managed by Jimmy Manning, went to Washington and retained its minor-league connection. Manning was the first manager of the Senators (officially the Nationals for many years but more often referred to by fans and others as the Senators) and brought with him most of his players from Kansas City.

The major-league Senators established their destiny early, finishing no higher than sixth in an eight-team league in each of its first 11 seasons, four times finishing in the cellar. As early as 1904 came the quip, "Washington: First in War, First in Peace, Last in the American League."

Washington wallowed despite the addition in 1907 of Walter Johnson, considered by many to be the best pitcher in the history of baseball. Johnson struck out more than 3,500 batters in his career. Several pitchers later surpassed his strikeout record, but Johnson achieved his total mainly during the deadball era, a period that preceded the big swingers.

In 1912 Johnson was credited with 33 pitching victories and helped the Senators finish second, the first time the team placed higher than sixth. Leading the team was Clark Griffith, in his first year as Washington manager. Griffith had been an outstanding pitcher in the 1890s and was a leader getting the American League established, helping to convince more than 100 National League players to join the new league.

Griffith also began acquiring an ownership interest in the Senators, selling cattle from his Montana ranch and eventually mortgaging the ranch to raise the funds needed to purchase a controlling interest. He became the team's president in 1920.

Around this time Griffith took custody of two children of his wife's brother, James Robertson, who lived in Montreal and had health and money problems. Calvin and Thelma Robertson moved to Washington and, although never formally adopted, took the Griffith name. Clark Griffith ran the Senators as a family operation. Calvin and Thelma eventually worked for the team along with the siblings who had stayed with James Robertson. As a 12-year-old, Calvin Griffith was a bat boy for the Senators at the high point for the team in Washington.

The Senators were guided by a veteran and a relative youngster in 1924. Walter Johnson (shown below), in his 18th season, led the American League with 23 wins. The second baseman, 27-year-old Bucky Harris, was in his first year of managing Washington while acquiring the nickname, "Boy Wonder."

The Senators stopped a three-year pennant streak by the New York Yankees and went to the World Series, against the New York Giants, who had won their fourth straight National League pennant. Those pulling for the Senators included President Calvin Coolidge, who attended the World Series games in the capital. Many fans were excited that the 36-year-old Johnson finally had made it to the World Series. However, Johnson was the losing pitcher in the 12-inning opener as well as the fifth game, and it looked like he wouldn't get the World Series win that so many were hoping for.

The World Series went to a decisive seventh game, and though Johnson didn't start, he entered the game after the Senators scored two runs on Harris's bad-hop single to tie the score in the last of the eighth. The Big Train, as Johnson was known, again had a shot at a World Series win, one that would give his team the championship. The victory, for Johnson and the Senators, came in the last of the 12th when Earl McNeely doubled home Muddy Ruel.

Another celebration came in 1925, although this time it was for only a league championship. Johnson won two games in the World Series against Pittsburgh. However, in the seventh game, he couldn't hold a four-run lead in the final game and lost to the Pirates.

As Clark Griffith worked his family members into the Senators organization, some worked their way into the family. Shortstop Joe Cronin came to Washington in 1928 and began courting Mildred Robertson, who was Griffith's secretary and his niece. Cronin became player-manager in 1933 as the Senators won 99 games to win the pennant although they lost to the Giants in the World Series. Cronin and Robertson got married near the end of the 1934 season. While they were on their honeymoon, Cronin got the word that he had been traded to the Boston Red Sox. The deal included $250,000 from the Red Sox, an indication of how Griffith was always in need of money, to the point that he would unload a family member.

Bucky Harris returned as manager, continuing a pattern under Clark Griffith of Washington managers who had played for the team. In the 1940s, Ossie Bluege took the helm for five years. Bluege was an organization lifer, having played for the Senators for 18 years before becoming a coach and then manager. Bluege became farm director – he is credited with discovering Harmon Killebrew – and then the team's comptroller, a role he kept in the 1960s after Washington moved to Minnesota.

During World War II, the Senators were among teams who cut expenses with Griffith relying on an inexpensive and untapped pool of talent in Latin America. While the Senators scaled back on scouts, one man, Joe Cambria, stood out as Griffith's Caribbean connection, particularly in Cuba and especially after skin color no longer disqualified a player from organized baseball.

Clark Griffith died in 1955, and nephew Calvin took over as president. The Senators were as dismal as ever, and the usual low finish in the standings was commensurate with the small number of fans who attended games at Griffith Stadium.

The Senators had played on the same site since 1904, in a park that had been used by a Washington team in the National League in the 1890s. In March of 1911, the park's wooden stands burned. The grandstand was quickly rebuilt with steel and concrete and expanded over the years. It took the name Griffith Stadium in the 1920s and was notable for a quirky right-angle detour of the fence in center field to avoid several houses behind it as well as for its long distances to left field. Two players – Mickey Mantle and Josh Gibson – hit blasts long enough to clear the grandstand beyond the left-field fence, but it was a graveyard for right-handed hitters. For years, the distance down the line was more than 400 feet. The distance was reduced in the 1950s, eventually to 350 feet, making it more inviting for up-and-coming sluggers such as Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew.

Even with an improving farm system and the arrival of young talent, Washington continued to lose more than 90 games a season. As season attendance stayed consistently below 500,000, and as other major-league teams were relocating, Calvin Griffith explored a new home for the Senators and finally, after the 1960 season, got permission to move to Minnesota.

The players the Senators developed and acquired – besides Allison and Killebrew, there were Camilo Pascual, Jim Kaat, and Earl Battey – became the All-Stars of the 1960s. Unfortunately for Washington, and fortunately for Minnesota, they did so as Twins rather than as Senators.

DID YOU Know?

...that in 1976, Twins pitcher Bill Campbell went 17-5 with a 3.00 ERA and 20 saves in 78 relief appearances. He became the second player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games in a season since saves became an official statistic in 1969 (Dodgers' Mike Marshall won 15 and saved 21 in 1974). Campbell's 17 victories tied the American League record for wins in relief. In 1977, Twins reliever Tom Johnson became the third player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games. He finished the season 16-7 with a 3.12 ERA and 15 saves in 71 relief appearances.

DID YOU Know?

...that on 22 occasions, Twins catchers and pitchers have combined to nab three would-be base stealers in a game, but only once, on May 29, 1982, have they ever nailed four runners in one game. Ken Griffey, Graig Nettles, Bobby Murcer and Willie Randolph were caught by Twins catcher Sal Butera that day; Nettles and Murcer as part of a Twins triple play.

2022 MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

TRIPLE-A ST. PAUL (74-75, International League West Division) — The Saints went 74-75 in 2022, the club's second season of affiliated baseball following 28 seasons in the independent ranks. Similar to 2021, St. Paul saw a significant number of players cross the river between CHS Field and Target Field, as 13 players made their major league debuts for the Twins. St. Paul's offense proved to once again be a strength, as the club ranked second in the International League in runs-per-game (5.45), third in home runs (194) and runs scored (812), fourth in RBI (758) and fifth in total bases (2143). However, St. Paul's pitching staff wasn't as sharp, posting a 4.96 ERA, fifth highest in the International League, and plunking 91 batters, tied for second most in the league. The Saints also finished 10th in all of Minor League Baseball in attendance, drawing 473,911 fans to CHS Field. Prior to joining the Twins for most of the second half of the season, Jake Cave hit .273 (88-for-322) with 20 doubles, seven triples, 14 home runs and 57 RBI in 85 games for the Saints and posted a 49-game on-base streak from May 3-July 7, the fourth-longest such streak in the minors in 2022. Several of the Twins' top prospects shined for the Saints prior to debuting for the Twins; No. 2 prospect Royce Lewis hit .313 (41-for-131) with 12 doubles, one triple, five home runs, 14 RBI and a .405 on-base percentage in 34 games prior to debuting on May 6, while No. 10 prospect and St. Paul native Louie Varland went 1-1 with a 1.69 ERA (21.1 IP, 4 ER) with three walks and 27 strikeouts for St. Paul before debuting for Minnesota on September 17.

DOUBLE-A WICHITA (78-59, Texas League North Division) — The Wind Surge and manager Ramon Borrego made their second-straight Championship Series appearance, defeating Tulsa 2-0 in the Texas League North Division Championship Series before falling to Frisco, 0-2, in the Texas League Championship Series. After placing third in the North Division in the first half, the Wind Surge went 43-26 in the second half and finished first in the division in the regular season with a 78-59 final record. In fact, Wichita lost each of its first five games of the season but countered that with a subsequent seven-game winning streak, never falling below .500 after achieving the mark on April 19. Wichita's offense ranked second in the Texas League in stolen bases (170) and on-base percentage (.356), fourth in OPS (.783) and fifth in batting average (.261) and slugging percentage (.427). The Wind Surge's pitching staff held its own in the historically offense-heavy Texas League, leading the league in ERA (4.16) and ranking third in WHIP (1.41) and fourth in opponent batting average (.247). No. 10 prospect Louie Varland began his minor league Player of the Year campaign in Wichita, going 7-4 with a 3.34 ERA (105.0 IP, 39 ER), 39 walks and 119 strikeouts in 20 games (19 starts) for the Wind Surge before being promoted to Triple-A on August 8. No. 14 prospect Edouard Julien spent the entire season with the Wind Surge, hitting .300 (120-for-400) with 19 doubles, three triples, 17 home runs, 67 RBI, 98 walks, 77 runs scored, a .441 on-base percentage and a .931 OPS, leading the Texas League in OBP and walks.

HIGH-A CEDAR RAPIDS (73-58, Midwest League West Division) — The Kernels matched South Bend for the best overall regular-season record (73-58). Cedar Rapids also went 43-23 in the first half, clinching their ninth-consecutive Postseason berth and third under manager Brian Dinkelman, before falling to division rival South Bend, 1-2, in the West Division Championship Series. The Kernels' potent offense led the MWL in runs-per-game (5.19), runs scored (680) and RBI (629), while also ranking second in triples (38), home runs (150), slugging percentage (.403) and OPS (.732). Cedar Rapids' pitching staff also led the league in ERA (3.66) while ranking second in WHIP (1.24) and third in holds (48). Southpaw Brent Headrick emerged as one of the Kernels' best hurlers, going 8-2 with a 2.34 ERA (65.1 IP, 17 ER), 13 walks, 77 strikeouts and a .188 opponent batting average in 15 starts for Cedar Rapids prior to being promoted to Double-A on July 23. After beginning the season in Fort Myers, No. 11 prospect David Festa was promoted to the Kernels on May 16 and went 7-3 with a 2.71 ERA (79.2 IP, 24 ER), 28 walks and 75 strikeouts in 16 games (13 starts) for Cedar Rapids, including pitching 6.0 scoreless innings (2 H, 10 K) in the Kernels' playoff opener on September 13 in South Bend.

LOW-A FORT MYERS (69-59, Florida State League West Division) — The Mighty Mussels put together their ninth-straight winning campaign, winning the Florida State League West Division by going 69-59 (.539) in the regular season. This included a 41-23 (.641) mark in the first half, which secured Fort Myers' fourth Postseason berth in the last five seasons. However, the Mighty Mussels were defeated in the first round of the playoffs, dropping the FSL West Division Championship Series, 1-2, to Dunedin. During the regular season, Fort Myers led the FSL in walks (574), on-base percentage (.343) and OPS (.720), while ranking second in slugging percentage (.377), third in doubles (196), home runs (101), stolen bases (179), total bases (1481) and runs-per-game (4.52), tied for third in runs scored (579) and fourth in batting average (.236). Fort Myers' pitching staff also dominated, leading the league in ERA (3.52), runs-per-game (3.92) and shutouts (13), while ranking third in opponent batting average (.227). The staff shined on May 10, when David Festa (6.0 IP, 11 K), Jaylen Nowlin (2.0 IP, 3 K) and Hunter McMahon (1.0 IP) combined for the fifth no-hitter in Fort Myers history, in a 3-0 win over Palm Beach. Twins' No. 3 prospect Emmanuel Rodriguez put together a strong campaign for the Mighty Mussels in his second pro season, hitting .272 (37-for-136) with five doubles, three triples, nine home runs, 25 RBI, 57 walks, a .492 on-base percentage and a 1.043 OPS in 47 games. No. 16 prospect Noah Miller ranked second in the FSL in walks (76), third in runs scored (62), sixth in on-base percentage (.348) and ninth in stolen bases (23).

FCL TWINS (25-30, Rookie, Florida Complex League) — The FCL Twins improved upon last year's seventh-place finish to place fourth in the Florida Complex League's South Division, with a 25-30 record. Offensively, the Twins hit the third-most home runs (37) and fifth-most doubles (88) in the FCL, while also ranking sixth in walks (259), seventh in total bases (603), ninth in slugging percentage (.351) and 10th in OPS (.685). Pitching-wise, the Twins led the FCL in strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.77) and ranked third in strikeouts (540), third in walks allowed (195), third in strikeouts-per-nine (10.5), third in walks-per-nine (3.8) and ninth in ERA (4.22). 2022 first-round draft pick Brooks Lee made his professional debut with the Twins on August 4 and hit .353 (6-for-17) with two doubles, three RBI and two runs scored in four games for the club before being promoted and beginning an ascent that saw him finish his first pro season in Double-A.

TARGET FIELD

TARGET FIELD®

The Minnesota Twins moved into the award-winning Target Field prior to the 2010 season. The ballpark is a modern architectural expression, a dichotomy of Minnesotans' cosmopolitan lifestyle so rooted in nature and the outdoors. The stone and glass landmark, topped by a metal-clad, sculpted roof canopy, is chiseled into downtown Minneapolis on one of Major League Baseball's smallest sites. The ballpark's urban appeal is enhanced with immediate access to light rail and commuter rail, bridging the site to its urban surroundings and spurring the ongoing development and transformation of the western corner of downtown.

Now in its 14th season, Target Field has proved to be one of the premier sporting and entertainment venues in the Upper Midwest, while earning widespread acclaim as one of the most unique and spectacular ballparks in all of Major League Baseball. Here is a list of features that help make the Twins' outdoor home unlike any other baseball experience in America.

MATERIALS

Native Minnesota limestone forms the mass of the ballpark's exterior façade. Glass and metal details punctuate the limestone surface, creating a sophisticated composition. In addition, whenever possible, the ballpark and surrounding areas incorporate native Minnesota flowers, trees and shrubs.

SEATING

Target Field features one of the closest seating bowls to the playing field in all of Major League Baseball. Seats in Target Field feature more leg room and are articulated towards the field of play. The ballpark also features more aisles with fewer seats per row.

CONCOURSE

The ballpark features a 360-degree open main concourse, giving fans an uninterrupted view of the playing field.

Approximate Capacity	38,544
Seating in Lower Level	18,640
Seating in Upper Level	14,703
Seating in Club Level	5,201
Concourse Width (main)	40 feet
Concourse Width (upper)	26-44 feet
Restrooms	401 (w) 266 (m)

CLIMATE/SHELTER

The Twins are committed to providing a comfortable experience for the fans — even when our weather is less than perfect. Fans are able to take advantage of heated concessions, restrooms, and restaurant and lounge areas found on each ballpark level, including the Terrace level. Target Field's roof canopy — one of the largest in baseball — provides added protection, while the Gate 34 area (revamped prior to 2019) provides shelter for fans entering the ballpark's main gate.

EVOLVING AND ADAPTING

Under the leadership of the Pohlad family, the Twins continually examine all aspects of the ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Accordingly, Target Field has undergone several significant renovations, additions and enhancements since opening in 2010 (please see pages 483-486 for more information).

CELEBRATING MINNESOTA'S RICH BASEBALL HERITAGE

Target Field celebrates the heritage and history of our game across the Upper Midwest. The ballpark includes tributes to the great Twins teams and players from the past, other Minnesota baseball icons and baseball players, and teams and ballparks of all levels.

"The Winter Classic couldn't look better at Target Field. What an awesome moment for the State of Hockey."

That sentiment, posted on social media by St. Paul Pioneer Press reporter Dane Mizutani and subsequently shared internationally by thousands, gave words to the emotions that nearly 40,000 people at Target Field — and another 1.4 million watching on television — felt before, during and after the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® on New Year's Day.

Thanks to the drive of Minnesota Wild Owner & Governor Craig Leipold and President & Alternate Governor Matt Majka; the shared passion of Minnesota Twins Executive Chair Jim Pohlad and President & CEO Dave St. Peter; the vision of NHL executives; and the commitment and hard work of hundreds of people, Target Field was transformed into a hockey winter wonderland. The resulting New Year's Day setting was truly spectacular, shining a deserved spotlight on the Twin Cities and Minnesota.

Jamie Hersch, a Minnesota-born analyst for both the NHL and MLB Network (and a former Bally Sports North personality), shared with her viewers that "I always tell people that the Land of 10,000 Lakes also means the Land of 10,000 Frozen Pond Hockey Rinks." It was thus only fitting that the Winter Classic showcased Minnesota's love affair with hockey in its purest form, regardless of (or perhaps because of!) the elements.

The first-ever Winter Classic played at night also became the coldest outdoor game in NHL history, with a temperature of -8 degrees Fahrenheit at puck drop that made this Wild-St. Louis Blues contest the third-chilliest event in North American pro sports history (behind only a pair of infamous NFL games: the 1967 "Ice Bowl" in Green Bay that was -13 at kickoff, and the 1982 "Freezer Bowl" in Cincinnati that began with a -9 reading). Despite the cold and the hometown Wild's 6-4 loss, the sellout crowd of 38,619 stayed energetic throughout, enthralled by the spectacle of "Lake Winter Classic" at Target Field.

2022 DISCOVER NHL WINTER CLASSIC®

2ND INTERMISSION	2022 U.S. Olympic Women's Hockey Team
FINAL SCORE	Blues 6, Wild 4
TIME OF GAME	2:42

* marked 3rd-coldest event in North American pro sports history

As Mizutani opined in the Pioneer Press, "With nearly 40,000 fans packed into the stands, the Minneapolis skyline twinkling in the background, and the temperature hovering around minus-10 degrees all night long, the Winter Classic was always going to be something for Minnesotans to remember." And it certainly was. From kids joining Minnesota luminaries to skate on the outfield "ponds" to a ceremonial puck drop featuring Twins legends Justin Morneau, Kent Hrbek, Joe Mauer and new Hall of Fame electee Tony Oliva; from Vocal Essence's powerful delivery of the national anthem to country music superstar Thomas Rhett's scintillating first intermission concert; from 7-year-old Adam Christopher Scott's stirring rendition of Herb Brooks' legendary "Miracle" speech during the second period to a near-stunning third-period rally by the Wild, the Winter Classic at Target Field was electric from start to finish.

At the end of this awe-inspiring night in the State of Hockey, the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® had created memories to last a lifetime. Or, as Star Tribune reporter Sarah McLellan so aptly summarized:

"The Winter Classic became a postcard for Minnesota."

Since opening Target Field in 2010, the Twins are the first and only MLB club to achieve five separate LEED certifications:

  2nd MLB team thus honored
- 2011: LEED Silver for Existing Buildings: Operations & Maintenance

THE "GREENEST" BALLPARK IN AMERICA

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL GREEN GLOVE AWARD

The Twins won the 2021 Green Glove Award, given to the Major League Baseball club with the highest waste diversion rate during the previous year. In beating six other finalists, the Twins became the first club other than the San Francisco Giants or Seattle Mariners to win the award since its inception in 2008.

During the 2021 season, the Twins saved more than 99 percent of Target Field waste from landfills: 33.8 percent via composting, 34.4 percent via recycling and 31.1 percent via a waste-to-energy partnership with the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (HERC).

TARGET FIELD WASTE DIVERSION

More than 99 percent of waste generated at Target Field is diverted from landfills — a process driven by the Twins, the club's partners and the in-ballpark efforts of fans.

CAPTURING AND REUSING RAINWATER

Through a custom-designed Rain Water Recycle System provided by Minneapolis-based Pentair, the Twins have captured, purified and reused nearly 20 million total gallons of rainwater since Target Field opened, drastically reducing the use of municipal water at the ballpark. The majority of recycled rainwater is used to wash down the seating bowl attached to the main concourse.

RECYCLING, COMPOSTING AND CONVERTING WASTE TO ENERGY

Through aggressive recycling and waste-to-energy programs, the Twins have kept nearly 14,500 tons of waste out of local landfills from 2011 to 2022.

- 4,572 tons of trash have been sent to the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (HERC)
- 5,091 tons of waste have been recycled from Target Field
- 4,834 tons of organic materials have been composted and diverted from landfills

DONATING UNUSED FOOD TO LOCAL CHARITIES

The Twins and concessionaire partner Delaware North Sportservice donate more than five tons of food to local charities each season. Through a partnership with Rock and Wrap it Up!, Inc., all prepared but untouched meals at Target Field are boxed up and donated to local charities. To date, these efforts have kept more than 68 tons of waste out of local landfills.

The Twins are proud to partner with Delaware North Sportservice, Eco-Products, Ecolab, Marsden Services, Pentair, Republic Services and Rock and Wrap it Up!, Inc. for sustainability efforts at Target Field.

TARGET FIELD
Target Field Station

Opened in spring of 2014, Target Field Station connects people and places, as this multi-modal transportation hub at 5th St. N and 5th Ave. N in downtown Minneapolis offers public green spaces, connections to 500 trains daily via the METRO Blue and Green lines, the Northstar Commuter Rail, as well as access to the North Loop neighborhood. Target Field Station's more than 104,000 square feet of space include a public plaza for year-round special events and activities, green space, a 1,000-seat amphitheater, office space, retail shops and a 286-car underground parking garage. The Minnesota Twins, Target and Hennepin County offer programming and special events in the public space.

TARGET FIELD STATION PROVIDES a connection for commuters, baseball fans, downtown visitors and riders connecting to other Metro Transit services — including Blue and Green Line Light Rail service to St. Paul, the airport and Mall of America, the Northstar Commuter Rail Line, as well as bus service from the nearby 5th Street Transit Center. Future transit lines and plans to develop a transportation hub will create additional regional connections for Target Field commuters.

THE PURPOSE of Target Field Station is to provide high-quality transit service and efficient access to Minneapolis and surrounding communities. This hub encourages greater use of public transportation within the Twin Cities due to a centrally-located facility, and improved multi-modal and pedestrian connections.

LOCATED on the north side of the park, Target Field Station is connected to the North Loop neighborhood. The name refers to the trolley line that once ran through the area, which is part of Minneapolis' Warehouse District. It connects the North Loop neighborhood with its roots.

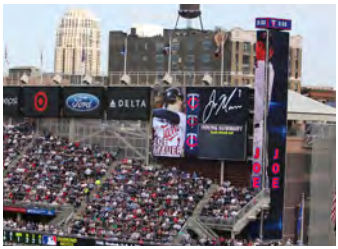

THE BLUE LINE runs from Target Field to the Mall of America. The Central Corridor — Green Line — runs down University Avenue to St. Paul's Union Depot.

TARGET FIELD® Upgrades

The Twins are continually examining all aspects of their home ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Following are the major renovations, additions and enhancements at Target Field since it opened in 2010.

RIGHT FIELD VIDEOBOARD AND TWINS TOWER (2010-11 OFFSEASON; FURTHER ENHANCEMENTS IN 2022-23 OFFSEASON) - Located next to each other behind the right field grand stand, the videoboard and Twins Tower were first introduced before the 2011 season, then further enhanced before the 2023 offseason as part of the Twins' "Scoreboard 2.0" project with Daktronics and Dimensional Innovations (please see page 486 for more information).

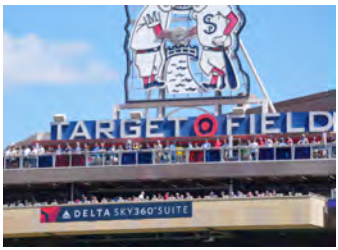

CORONA RIGHT FIELD PATIO (2012-13 OFFSEASON) - The Twins replaced regular seating in the right field corner and unveiled "porch seating" in an area designed to be an exciting destination for both group and single-game ticket purchasers, similar to the Budweiser Roof Deck in left field. Beginning on Opening Day 2022, this area became known as the Corona Right Field Patio.

GRAY DUCK DECK (2014-15 OFFSEASON; RENOVATED AGAIN 2019-20 OFFSEASON) - Originally built after the 2014 season to replace a team store and add more drink rails, the Twins and Gray Duck announced a new partnership in 2020 that brings the Minnesota liquor brand into Target Field with an open-air bar featuring signature drinks, celebrity bartender events and a great view of the game. Located adjacent to the left field foul pole, inside Gate 6.

DELTA SKY360° SUITE AND MINNIE & PAUL'S (2015-16 OFFSEASON) - The Twins and Populous transformed the center field seating area into a multi-level fan gathering space. The upper level, called Minnie & Paul's, is a Twins-themed pub open to all fans that includes food from Minnesota's own Pizza Lucé and Red Cow. The lower tier houses the Delta SKY360° Suite, an all-inclusive club with access to approximately 120 Twins Season Ticket Holders.

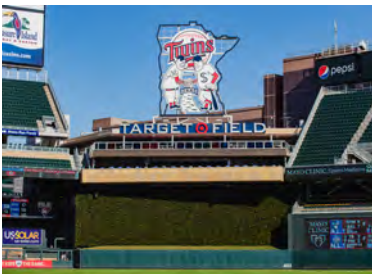

LED LIGHTING (2016-17 OFFSEASON) - The field lighting was upgraded to LED technology, reducing fixture count from 746 to approximately 512 and cutting energy use by approximately 55% for the field lighting. Additionally, the LED technology provides an improved look for not only fans at the ballpark, but also for television viewers. LED fixtures were also installed to illuminate the underside of the canopy, allowing for flexibility to change colors as desired.

TRULY ON DECK (2017-18 OFFSEASON) - Renovated in 2018, the space formerly known as the "Metropolitan Club" was improved to accommodate any guest, making it open to all fans with a game-day ticket. The expansive renovation includes operable glass windows, opening the space to the full Target Field experience. With indoor and outdoor seating, state-of-the-art video elements, Minnesota-based artist murals and major Twins award history on display, Truly On Deck is a great setting before, during or after the game.

"LIVING WALL" BATTER'S EYE (2018-19 OFFSEASON) - Replacing the previous black backdrop, the Target Field living wall system is the first of its kind for a Major League Baseball batter's eye and, at 2,280 square feet, is among the largest in the continental United States. The living wall incorporates approximately 5,700 sea green juniper plants, individually installed and secured in a tiered, multiple-tray system. Together, the junipers create a consistent, stationary background without variations in color or texture.

GATE 34 AREA

Beginning in 2018, accelerating in 2019 and continuing through 2020 and into 2021, the Twins added more than 9,300 square feet to the Gate 34 area, enhancing ingress and egress, while transforming Target Field's "front door" into a dynamic, vibrant space for fans to gather, eat and drink, play lawn games, relax and enjoy the shared experience of Twins Baseball.

EXPANDED CONCOURSE AND DRAFTS AT 34 - In 2018, the Twins expanded the main concourse at the intersection of Gates 29 and 34 by as much as 40 feet, creating enhanced ingress and egress for fans. This renovation also cut down on congestion and provided fans with new, premium drink rail standing-room locations. Also included in the concourse renovation was a tap wall known as DRAFTS at 34, which features more than 20 unique beers from across Twins Territory.

GATE 34 PUB, SCHNEIDERMAN'S LAWN AND CREATOR'S CORNER PRESENTED BY U.S. BANK - Beginning in 2021, the main entrance to Target Field became home to a pair of new gathering spots before or during the game. The Gate 34 Pub features food and beverage options, while the 5,600-square-foot Schneiderman's Lawn is an inviting place for kids, families and all fans to kick back and relax on weather-resistant furniture (such as Adirondack chairs, wooden tables and benches, high-top bar tables and swivel chairs); or, to enjoy a game of catch and a spirited round of favorite lawn games such as cornhole. The Creator's Corner presented by U.S. Bank, featuring a trio of Twins Territory businesses owned by women or Black, Indigenous and People of Color, will debut with the 2023 Home Opener (please see page 487 for more information).

Upgrades, Continued...

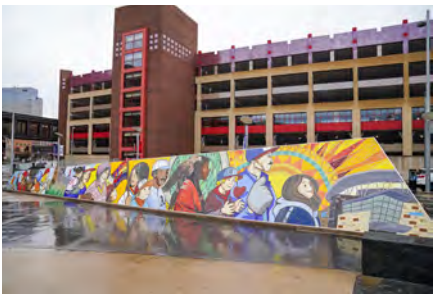

UNITEDHEALTHCARE SENSORY SUITE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins are proud to invite neuroatypical guests of all ages and abilities to visit Target Field's state-of-the-art UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite. Located on the UnitedHealthcare Suite Level, the former "Suite 1" was completely renovated before the 2022 season and, in partnership with leading health care experts, reimagined and equipped to provide a welcoming, compatible environment in which neuroatypical guests may find temporary respite, if needed, during games. The spacious Sensory Suite features unique, separated spaces specifically designed to meet different needs, including those of children and adults, while on-site staffers have been individually trained to deliver appropriate and diverse assistance. The UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite's unique location is meant to ensure accessibility, while also helping to ease guests' transition back to their ticketed seats by offering a controlled, outdoor area overlooking the game. This outdoor option makes Target Field's sensory area among a select few professional sports venues nationally to have a view of the playing surface.

THE MARKET (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - Located inside Gate 6 down the left field line, "The Market" is an open-air, walk-through environment delivering both fresh hot food and pre-packaged grab-and-go items not available elsewhere in the ballpark, and — in a first for local sports venues — a walk-in cooler featuring an extensive variety of canned craft beers. Guests can enjoy this customizable, interactive shopping experience at their own pace, before quickly and efficiently purchasing their items through self-checkout stations.

GATE 29 MOSAIC (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins brought public art celebrating the diversity of our city, state and region — not just on game day, but 365 days a year — to the ballpark's "front porch" outside Gate 29. Designed by the renowned Minneapolis duo of mosaic artist Daniela Bianchini and muralist Kalaka, and showcasing the themes of "All Are Welcome at Target Field" and "Celebrating Our Community's Rich Diversity," this majestic glass mosaic is as varied and uniquely special as the people it represents. Comprised of thousands of individual glass pieces, the 66-foot-long mural brings many of Minnesota's cultures and communities together in a colorful expression of unity.

THE PLAYING SURFACE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - After 12 years, 928 Major League Baseball games (including the 2014 All-Star Game), 11 years of the Minnesota State High School League championships, 40 college baseball games (including the 2013 and 2015 Big Ten Conference tournaments), 17 concerts, two college football games, one soccer friendly and the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic®, the playing surface at Target Field was replaced for the first time prior to the 2022 Twins season. This extensive project, which began February 24, 2022, and was completed in late-March, involved crews entirely comprised of Minnesotans. The new playing surface again features the same four-way blend of Kentucky Bluegrass, with the foundational sand coming from Elk River, Minnesota. The old (original) turf was broken down into reusable material.

TARGET FIELD
Scoreboard 2.0

The Twins' most expansive renovation of their home ballpark since it opened in 2010, the Scoreboard 2.0 project — which began in the 2021-22 offseason and was completed during the 2022-23 offseason — further enhances the Target Field fan experience by delivering best-in-class LED technology for the venue's main and auxiliary videoboards and other digital displays, along with a pair of creative, interactive and signature elements: An updated "Minnie & Paul" celebration sign rising above the ballpark in center field, and the club's "TC" mark encased in a revolving, illuminated baseball medallion sitting atop the right field tower ("Twins Tower").

VIDEOBOARDS AND DIGITAL DISPLAYS

Beginning with the 2023 Home Opener, Target Field will feature 22 new LED displays totaling more than 13.1 million LEDs and more than 23,000 square feet — a 63% increase from 2022, a 113% jump from 2010 and among the most extensive in MLB.

Main Videoboard: 57' high x 178' wide (10,146 sq. feet)
Resolution: 1,128 lines x 3,552 columns (HDR capable)
76% larger than previous display (6th largest in MLB)
Among select few in MLB to be HDR capable

Auxiliary Board: 28' high by 77' wide (2,156 sq. feet)
Resolution: 828 lines x 2,304 columns
54% larger than previous display

Other Displays: Twins Tower (74' high x 33'6" wide; 2,479 sq. feet); 21% bigger
Seating bowl ribbons (11 displays at 1,485 linear feet); 21% more
Bullpen (8'6" high x 96' wide; 816 sq. feet); 54% bigger
Outfield fence (12' high x 109' wide; 1,308 sq. feet)
Gate 34 entrance (43' high x 17' wide; 726 sq. feet); NEW

MINNIE & PAUL CELEBRATION SIGN

A hallmark of Target Field since the ballpark opened in 2010, the new Minnie & Paul celebration sign imbues nostalgia with technological enhancements.

Design: Taking elements from the Twins' primary logos from the 1961-86 seasons, the historical characters of Ray Barton's original sketch are again depicted shaking hands across the Mississippi River, while "Win! Twins!" completes the scene, which is framed within the Minnesota state outline.

Dimensions: 46' high x 39' wide (same as previous).
17,280 pounds (11,700 pounds of which is the steel frame).

Handshake: Rather than the shifting light display of the prior iteration, Minnie & Paul's handshake is now mechanical with moving arms.

LED Lighting: 1,203 linear feet of controllable, RGBW LED display, with 155 total LEDs. "Win! Twins!" is controlled independently; color scheme is customizable.

REVOLVING BASEBALL MEDALLION AND "TC" LOGO

Sitting atop the "Twins Tower" in right field, the combined effect of the new, luminous baseball medallion and the encased, illuminated "TC" logo creates a brilliant "Beacon to the City" and a focal point for Target Field, downtown Minneapolis and all Twins fans.

Design: The baseball medallion is technically a three-frequency geodesic sphere made up of icosahedron triangles — the higher the frequency, the more triangles there are. The more triangles it has, the stronger and more spherical it becomes; the baseball rotates around an internal "TC" logo.

Dimensions: The baseball medallion is approximately 12' in diameter.
The internal "TC" stands 9' tall.
Total weight is 2,500 pounds (including its steel support).

LED Lighting: The baseball medallion has 60 programmable RGBW LED nodes, spaced equally at hub connections (there are 70 pairs of illuminated stitches).
The "TC" is internally illuminated on both sides.

The $29.5 million project, which also replaced all previous videoboard control room equipment, was funded equally by the Twins and the Minnesota Ballpark Authority's Ballpark Capital Reserve Fund. Video displays were provided by Daktronics (including assembly at the company's Redwood Falls, Minnesota factory), while the Minnie & Paul Celebration Sign and Revolving Baseball Medallion with "TC" logo were designed and built by Dimensional Innovations. The project was executed as a design-build partnership between Mortenson and HGA.

TARGET FIELD® Social Spaces

Since its opening, Target Field has evolved with — and for — Twins fans. Centered on, and enhanced by, the action on the field, an afternoon or evening at the ballpark is ultimately about more than nine innings or your ticketed seat. Twins Baseball is a communal experience, meant to be shared with friends, family and other fans in inclusive and engaging areas. From behind home plate to centerfield, from foul pole to foul pole, across all levels of Target Field and open to any fan with a ticket, the Twins are proud to provide social places for our fans to gather and enjoy the game — together.

DID YOU Know?

...that after a complete high-tech overhaul (completed prior to the 2021 season), Target Field deploys Wi-Fi 6. At nearly three times faster than the previous iteration, and with 670 hot spots throughout the ballpark, Target Field's Wi-Fi energizes a whole new level of digital engagement while enjoying the game.

CREATOR'S CORNER PRESENTED BY U.S. BANK

Using their shared platforms to spotlight and elevate Twins Territory businesses owned by women or Black, Indigenous and People of Color, the Minnesota Twins and U.S. Bank have launched a multi-year partnership to bring the "Creator's Corner presented by U.S. Bank" to Target Field. Beginning with the 2023 Home Opener, this unique retail space inside Gate 34 – the ballpark's "front porch" – will be home to three businesses for the entire season, with a new trio featured each subsequent year; the Twins will collaborate with the companies to feature, promote and sell their products, while making a financial investment in each.

The inaugural, 2023 Creator's Corner presented by U.S. Bank will feature:

Must Be Ruff (Brooklyn Park)
Native Roots Trading Post (St. Paul)
SJC Body Love (St. Paul)

ALL-STAR GAME

MINNESOTA TWINS AND THE ★ ALL-STAR GAME ★

The Minnesota Twins hosted Major League Baseball's All-Star Game in 2014, marking the third time as the host city to one of Major League Baseball's jewel events.

All-Star game events began at the Minneapolis Convention Center on July 11, where the T-Mobile FanFest took place for five days. On July 13, events included the MLB All-Star Charity 5-K & Fun Run, Taco Bell All-Star & Celebrity Softball Game and the SiriusXM Futures Game, where Jose Berríos, Alex Meyer and Kennys Vargas represented the Twins organization. July 14 featured the State Farm Home Run Derby, won by Oakland's Yoenis Céspedes. Brian Dozier represented the Twins, hitting two home runs while former Twin Justin Morneau participated in his third career Home Run Derby. Major League Baseball's 85th All-Star Game took place on July 15, which signified Yankee shortstop Derek Jeter's 14th and final All-Star Game. Jeter went 2-for-2, recording the game's first hit and run in the first inning. The Angels' Mike Trout earned the MVP Award, going 2-for-3 with two RBI and a run scored. The Twins were represented by catcher Kurt Suzuki and closer Glen Perkins, who combined to pitch and catch the ninth inning, giving Perkins the save in the American League's 5-3 victory. The game was played in front of 41,048, while attendance for the three days of events at Target Field was 121,169.

Metropolitan Stadium hosted the 1965 All-Star Game on July 13, a 6-5 National League victory that featured 18 Hall of Famers, including Harmon Killebrew, Hank Aaron, Roberto Clemente, Bob Gibson, Sandy Koufax, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Frank Robinson and Joe Torre. The Twins were represented by six players, marking the most in club history. The two starters for the Twins included Harmon Killebrew, who played first base and batted third and Earl Battey, who played catcher and batted eighth. Killebrew went 1-for-3 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning off Cincinnati's Jim Maloney. Twins in a reserve role included Tony Oliva, who went 1-for-2 with the game's only double; Zoilo Versalles; Jimmie Hall; and Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who allowed two runs in 2.0 innings of relief. The game was ultimately decided by a Ron Santo infield single, scoring Willie Mays in the seventh inning. Juan Marichal started for the NL, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings and earned the game's MVP Award. Sandy Koufax was the winning pitcher, Sam McDowell was the loser, and Bob Gibson was credited with the save as the game lasted two hours and 45 minutes and was played in front of 46,706.

On July 16, 1985, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome staged the 56th All-Star Game, a 6-1 NL victory that included Hall of Famers Bert Blyleven, George Brett, Wade Boggs, Carlton Fisk, Tony Gwynn, Rickey Henderson, Paul Molitor, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr., Nolan Ryan, Ryne Sandberg, Ozzie Smith and Dave Winfield. The Twins' lone representative was Tom Brunansky, who grounded out to short in his only at-bat in a reserve role and played one inning in right field. The NL jumped out in front early with a Steve Garvey RBI single in the second inning and held the lead throughout. LaMarr Hoyt started for the NL, allowing one unearned run in 3.0 innings pitched, earning the win and the game's MVP Award. Detroit's Jack Morris was the AL starter and suffered the loss. The game lasted two hours and 54 minutes and was played in front of 54,960.

The Dome also played host to the first ever All-Star Home Run Derby, including the Twins' own Tom Brunansky, who hit four home runs, good for second most among the 10 participants. Other participants were Jack Clark, Carlton Fisk, Steve Garvey, Eddie Murray, Dale Murphy, Home Run Derby Champion Dave Parker, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr. and Ryne Sandberg.

HEART OF TWINS TERRITORY
MINNESOTA TWINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The players, coaches, alumni and employees of the Minnesota Twins support nonprofit organizations throughout Twins Territory, from the Upper Midwest to Southwest Florida and beyond.

PROACTIVE · FOCUSED · AUTHENTIC · COLLABORATIVE · CONTINUOUS · IMPACT-DRIVEN · CONNECTED

MINNESOTA TWINS GIVING CHARTER

A proud community partner for more than 60 years, the Minnesota Twins in November of 2020 announced a new giving charter outlining the organization's commitment to advance social equity by investing in the full potential of our children, specifically focused on eliminating racial and socioeconomic opportunity gaps prevalent in K-12 education and overall youth development.

The Twins' giving charter – developed in collaboration with nonprofit partners, fans, the Pohlad Family Foundation and other community leaders – is built upon a foundation of continued legacy programs and guides the organization's charitable efforts. It is summarized as:

"The Minnesota Twins will advance social equity by leveraging our resources to ensure every child has the same opportunity for success. We believe equity in access to educational and developmental opportunities is essential in eliminating socioeconomic disparities. Building upon our longstanding community foundations, we will work to remove the barriers to access traditionally faced by underserved children, especially Black, Indigenous and People of Color, along with other wrongfully-marginalized individuals or groups. We are committed to shaping a society for children in which racism or inequality has no place. Our work, along with our partners', will focus on creating meaningful and inclusive changes that empower every child to reach their full potential."

MINNESOTA TWINS COMMUNITY SUPPORT

We believe that baseball brings communities together and makes them stronger. Through baseball, we support and engage; we collaborate and elevate; we connect and unify.

While we play 162 games, we celebrate and support all communities 365 days a year.

- Educational Programs » The Minnesota Twins are working with partners focused on eliminating racial and socioeconomic opportunity gaps in childhood education; specifically, literacy and STEM education for K-12 students. The organization's "Reading is Powerful" initiative, presented by the Star Tribune, provides literacy-themed programming to 30 elementary schools around the Twin Cities, while its "Learning Through Baseball" STEM-based educational tours at Target Field engage, enrich and empower more than 15,000 students each year. Additionally, partnerships with Project Success, Achieve Twin Cities, ACES, Black Men Teach, BestPrep, Every Meal and United Way's Action Day work to ensure that every student has the opportunity to succeed in school and in life.
- Youth Recreation/Healthy Living » Empowering the full potential of our youth also requires equitable access to opportunities outside the classroom that enhance overall development and well-being. The Minnesota Twins are proud to provide free, year-round baseball and softball clinics for children ages 3-14, both at Target Field and on fields throughout Twins Territory. The club also has longstanding relationships with the Courage Kenny Rehabilitation Institute and the "Rolling Twins" wheelchair softball team, the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities, the Minneapolis and St. Paul Parks and Recreation Departments, and Hennepin County for the Step-to-It Challenge. The 2022 season continued our commitment to equity and inclusion with the Twins Girls Baseball Camp in partnership with the St. Paul Saints and Her Next Play (and powered by Nike), along with the first-ever Baseball for All Toni Stone Clinic, the inaugural Fun on the Field clinic in North Minneapolis, and a clinic held in conjunction with Special Olympics Minnesota.
- Twins Players » Wearing the Minnesota Twins uniform carries a special meaning and responsibility in Twins Territory. Current players support nonprofit organizations through participation in events like TwinsFest, along with hospital and school visits, and appearances at community events throughout the region. Additionally, some commit their time and energy to specific causes; for example, Byron Buxton gifts game tickets and meets with service members and their families as part of "Buxton's Battalion," while Carlos Correa hosts a Hero of the Month, in partnership with Children's Minnesota, for children who are actively receiving treatment for cancer. In 2022, the Twins hosted the first annual Week of Service, an organization-wide initiative that engaged players across all of our affiliate teams.
- Twins Alumni » The Minnesota Twins family is a lifelong bond. Twins alumni such as Bert Blyleven, Rod Carew, LaTroy Hawkins, Kent Hrbek, Torii Hunter, Joe Mauer, Justin Morneau, Al Newman, Tony Oliva, Glen Perkins and others raise funds for and support charities through their various events and appearances.
- In-Kind Giving » The Minnesota Twins annually donate autographs, game experiences and more to support nearly 3,000 nonprofit auctions and fundraisers throughout the region; in 2022 alone, the club donated $3 million worth of tickets to Twins home games at Target Field for nonprofit partners and essential workers.
- Game Changers » Created to highlight small, minority-owned businesses making a big difference by giving back, the Twins Community Game Changers program, in partnership with Bally Sports North, celebrated its 2022 honorees: Design by Melo, Epimonia and PUSH Fitness.

I WILL CHANGE THE WORLD

"I Will Change the World" is not an event, a program, or even an action. It is a belief statement that embodies the Minnesota Twins' commitment to the community.

It is an ongoing reminder to ourselves and all people that we have the power to create positive change that will impact the world. From small acts of faithfulness to grand marks of progress, every person has something valuable to contribute to making the world a better place. With unity and respect at the forefront, together, we can change the world.

MINNESOTA TWINS ACCELERATOR BY TECHSTARS

Overview
In April of 2021, the Minnesota Twins announced a partnership with Techstars, the worldwide network that helps entrepreneurs succeed, for a three-year, accelerator program based out of the Ford Center in downtown Minneapolis. "The Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars" – the first of its kind in Minnesota sports and just the second such venture to be operated and funded by a Major League Baseball club – will attract, advance and invest in world-class startups focused on the future of sports, media and live entertainment technology.

Mission
The Minnesota Twins are striving to innovate on the field and off. Through three separate cohorts and a unique partnership with Techstars to develop a global pipeline of innovation, the Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars aims to support and develop startups into stable, self-sufficient businesses producing technology-driving solutions in areas ranging from fan engagement and experiences to digital media and content, from athlete performance and preparation to venue and event innovation, and beyond.

Leadership
Experienced industry leaders Sarah Bain (Managine Director), Jessica Stalbaum (Director of Platform) and Brett Bohl (Entrepreneur in Residence), guide the day-to-day operations of the Accelerator. Previously, this trio was involved in the creation of multiple, highly-successful Techstars accelerator programs in Minnesota with partners such as Cargill, Ecolab, Land O'Lakes and Target.

Mentorship
The three Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars cohorts (each featuring 10 startups) will receive funding; hands-on mentorship from Techstars, the Twins and the Pohlad Companies, curated workshops and resources; as well as lifetime access to the Techstars global network. The more than three dozen mentors from the Twins front office includes members of the club's senior leadership teams and a representative cross-section of the club's business and baseball operations.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

HARMON KILLEBREW 3

One of the greatest home run hitters of all time, Harmon Killebrew will forever be remembered by Twins fans as the 'Killer' for his prolific clouts. A member of the Twins from their inaugural Minnesota season in 1961, Killebrew hit 573 career home runs, 475 of them in his 14 seasons with the Twins, and ranks 12th on the all-time home run list and third (behind Babe Ruth and Alex Rodriguez) in American League history. He hit more than 40 home runs on eight occasions, and 30 or more 10 times, while driving in 100 or more runs nine times.

Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969 when he hit 49 home runs with an amazing 140 RBI and 145 walks, all team records that still stand. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984, becoming the first Twin to receive the honor. He had his number 3 formally retired on May 4, 1975, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and 40th Season All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

Killebrew passed away on May 17, 2011.

ROD CAREW 29

No Twins fan will ever forget the graceful power of Rod Carew's hitting stroke. Nor will any baseball enthusiast ever forget the summer of 1977, when Carew made his determined run at the untouchable .400 mark, because, just as Killebrew embodied the power of the game, Carew represented its finesse.

He was a career .328 hitter over his 19 major league seasons and was the winner of seven American League batting titles, all during his 12 years with Minnesota. Carew hit .300 or better 15 consecutive seasons and finished his career with 3,053 hits, which places him 28th among the all-time hit leaders and makes him one of only 33 players to collect 3,000 or more career hits.

Carew, who won the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1977, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 1991. He had his number 29 retired July 19, 1987, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

TONY OLIVA 6

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated by the fact that he led the league in hits five times and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins.

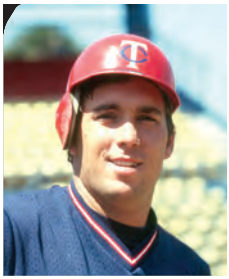

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He now works as a Twins hitting instructor at the major league and minor league level and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

After decades of waiting for the call, Oliva was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in December 2021 by the Golden Days Era Committee and was formally inducted in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2022.

DID YOU Know?

...that Rod Carew (Twins and Angels - 29) is one of 12 players/managers in baseball with his number retired by multiple franchises, the others being Hank Aaron (Braves and Brewers - 44), Sparky Anderson (Reds - 10, Tigers - 11), Wade Boggs (Rays - 12, Red Sox - 26), Rollie Fingers (A's and Brewers - 34), Carlton Fisk (Red Sox - 27, White Sox - 72), Roy Halladay (Phillies - 34, Blue Jays - 32), Reggie Jackson (A's - 9, Yankees - 44), Greg Maddux (Braves and Cubs - 31), Frank Robinson (Reds, Orioles and Guardians - 20), Nolan Ryan (Angels - 30, Astros and Rangers - 34) and Casey Stengel (Yankees and Mets - 37)

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

KENT HRBEK 14

Kent Hrbek grew up in the shadows of Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington and was destined to become a Minnesota Twin. The big kid had more fun than most and treated Twins fans to much excitement from the day he donned a Twins uniform, homering in his major league debut in the 12th inning at Yankee Stadium to give the Twins a win on August 24, 1981. He finished his career with 293 home runs and 1,086 RBI, both good for second most in club history.

Hrbek, who was runner-up to Cal Ripken Jr. for American League Rookie of the Year in 1982, made his only All-Star appearance that season. He was most appreciated by his teammates and Twins fans for his upper-deck power, agility and for being one of the best ever to play first base. He is among club leaders in nearly every offensive category, but may be best remembered for his Game 6 grand slam in the 1987 World Series, or for his tag of Atlanta's Ron Gant in Game 2 of the 1991 World Series. He had his number 14 formally retired August 13, 1995 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

KIRBY PUCKETT 34

Considered by most to be the greatest Twin, 'Puck' was baseball's jewel for 12 incredible seasons. He was a hero from day one, when he became the ninth player in history to collect four hits in his first game on May 8, 1984 at California. The dramatic entrance proved to be just the first of many heroic performances leading up to his shining moment on October 26, 1991, during Game 6 of the World Series against Atlanta. He went 3-for-4, robbed Ron Gant of an extra-base hit, and became the ninth player to end a World Series game with a home run on the final pitch with a drive off Charlie Leibrandt in the 11th inning to force a seventh game.

The 10-time All-Star, six-time Gold Glove Award winner and five-time Silver Slugger Award winner had his career cut short when he awoke with blurred vision caused by glaucoma on March 28, 1996. He was later forced to announce his retirement due to irreversible damage to the retina in his right eye on July 12. He retired as the Twins' all-time leader in hits (2,304), doubles (414), total bases (3,453), at-bats (7,244) and runs (1,071).

Puckett was one of the game's greatest community leaders and was given Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Man of the Year Award in 1996. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 2001 and became the third-youngest living electee in baseball history (behind Sandy Koufax and Lou Gehrig). He had his number 34 formally retired May 25, 1997 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Puckett passed away on March 6, 2006.

BERT BLYLEVEN 28

After breaking into the big leagues at the age of 19, Blyleven would go on to pitch 11 of his 22 major league seasons with the Twins (1970-76 and 1985-88). His knee-buckling curveball, competitive drive and his knack for being the clubhouse prankster are only a few reasons why Blyleven had a successful career.

Blyleven was named the 1970 American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and was selected to the American League All-Star Team in 1973 and 1985. He finished his Twins career with a record of 149-138 and a 3.28 ERA. His 2,035 strikeouts are the most in Twins history, while his 149 wins rank second.

The winner of two World Series Championships (1979 with Pittsburgh and 1987 with Minnesota), Blyleven ranks fifth on Major League Baseball's all-time strikeouts list with 3,701.

His number 28 was formally retired July 16, 2011, becoming the first Twins pitcher to have his number retired. Blyleven was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame in 2002, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Blyleven was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2011, becoming the first Hall of Famer born in the Netherlands.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

'TK' took over the managerial duties for the Twins on September 12, 1986. In his first full season (1987) as the skipper, he led the Twins to their first World Series Championship. He led the club to their second World Series victory in 1991, which marked the first time in major league history that a team went from last place one season to World Champions the next.

The 1991 American League Manager of the Year had a managerial record of 1140-1244, which places him first on Minnesota's all-time list in wins and games managed. At the time of his retirement after the 2001 season, Kelly was the longest tenured manager/coach in all of major sports. His number 10 was formally retired September 8, 2012, becoming the first Twins manager to receive the honor. Kelly was selected manager on the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

JOE MAUER 7

The hometown St. Paul kid and first overall pick in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft came out of Cretin-Derham Hall High School to play for the team he watched growing up on the other side of the Mississippi River. Mauer played 15 seasons in a Twins uniform from 2004-18, joining Tony Oliva as the only players in club history to reach that particular feat. During that time, the 2009 American League Most Valuable Player was named to six AL All-Star teams, earned five Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Awards, three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and became the only American League catcher to ever win a batting title, doing so three different times in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

The former catcher turned first baseman ranks first on the Twins all-time list in doubles (428) and times on base (3,087); second in games (1,858), hits (2,123) and walks (939); fifth in RBI (923) and 12th in home runs (143). He was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Mauer was a finalist for the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community service four times in his career, along with countless charitable endeavors from Joe and his family. Mauer's number was formally retired on June 15, 2019. He is scheduled to be inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame during the summer of 2023.

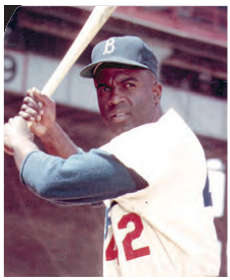

JIM KAAT 36

'Kitty' made his major league debut for the Washington Senators in 1959 and was a crucial part of the franchise's starting rotation when it relocated to the Twin Cities in 1961. - October 2, 2004: The Twins and Indians were forced to suspend their game after the 11th inning due to a curfew rule in effect for an upcoming University of Minnesota football game.
- October 2, 2005: Upon the conclusion of his 50th year of broadcasting baseball, the Twins re-named the baseball pressbox "The Herb Carneal Press Box" in honor of their long-time radio broadcaster. Carneal died on April 1, 2007.

40TH SEASON ANNIVERSARY ALL-TIME TEAM

In 2000, the Minnesota Twins celebrated 40 years of baseball in Minnesota. As part of that celebration, the Twins announced the Twins All-Time Team as part of the ballclub's 40th Season Celebration.

Voting for the Twins All-Time Team was split into three phases to include the fans, Upper Midwest media and former Twins players and coaches. Each group's vote counted one-third toward the final balloting results with the top vote recipients at each position automatically being named to the team. The All-Time Team selection committee reserved the right to name additional players to the final roster based upon overall vote totals.

The All-Time Team took part in an on-field pre-game ceremony on August 12, 2000 and a poster depicting the All-Time Team was given to the first 10,000 fans in attendance, courtesy of the Star Tribune.

A total of 93 Twins players and managers were featured on the All-Time Team ballot, which included categories for manager, catcher, first base, second base, third base, shortstop, outfield, right-handed starting pitcher, left-handed starting pitcher, relief pitcher, designated hitter, pinch hitter and utility player.

The Minnesota Twins 40th Season All-Time Team is comprised of 22 members, including 10 members of the club's 25th Anniversary Team: catcher Earl Battey, first baseman Harmon Killebrew, second baseman Rod Carew, shortstop Zoilo Versalles, leftfielder Bob Allison, centerfielder César Tovar, rightfielder Tony Oliva, right-handed pitcher Camilo Pascual, left-handed pitcher Jim Kaat and relief pitcher Al Worthington. TREASURE ISLAND BASEBALL NETWORK

WCCO NEWS TALK 830

2023 marks the 17th season that the Minnesota Twins control their radio broadcast rights. More than 80 stations in the five-state area carry Twins games and comprise the Treasure Island Baseball Network. In the Minneapolis-St. Paul market, the Twins can be heard on News Talk 830 WCCO, KMNB 102.9 FM The Wolf and streamed on the Audacy app. In 2022, the geo-fence for that live stream was expanded to include the entirety of Twins Territory. The live stream is available for no charge through the Audacy app, website and via smart speakers. Prior to the 2020 season, the Twins and Audacy added a FM simulcast of Twins Baseball on the 100,000 watt 102.9 The Wolf. The move back to 'CCO and Audacy in 2018 marked the return to their original broadcast partner, the Twins home for their first 47 years. The Twins were broadcasted on Go 96.3 for five seasons from 2013-17 and ESPN 1500 for six seasons from 2007-12.

The Twins employ an in-house production team that produces the game broadcasts including pre-game and post-game shows that air on network affiliates. In addition, the network team produces "Inside Twins" that airs Wednesday nights throughout the offseason hosted by pre- and postgame host Kris Atteberry. During the season, fans across Twins Territory can listen to "Inside Twins" which airs prior to Sunday pregame shows and features Twins President of Baseball Operations Derek Falvey, General Manager Thad Levine, Twins Manager Rocco Baldelli and other front office staff. This show runs all season and gives fans access into the inner workings of Twins baseball as well as a glimpse through the eyes of the Manager.

In 2007 the Twins, in partnership with the Minnesota News Network, assumed control and development of the Twins Radio Network with Treasure Island Resort & Casino, becoming the first-ever naming rights partner for the network in 2010. Historically, the Treasure Island Baseball Network has been one of the largest in all of Major League Baseball with hometown radio partners bringing Twins baseball to fans across five states.

The Twins also broadcast 50 games in Spanish. Alfonso Fernandez begins his 18th season as play-by-play voice, with Hall of Famer Tony Oliva as the analyst. Games in Spanish can be heard via a stream on twinsbeisbol.com simply by signing in with a free MLB account and is also carried on the SAP channel during Bally Sports North's broadcasts.

John Gordon Award — Twins Radio Affiliate of the Year

Named after legendary Twins broadcaster, John Gordon, this honor is awarded annually to the Twins radio affiliate that demonstrates the best of Twins Territory in its commitment to the Minnesota Twins and its community.

MINNESOTA TWINS MEDIA POLICIES

This is an abbreviated version of the Twins' media policies for the 2023 regular season; for the club's full policies, please visit the Twins' club content page on the MLB Credentials Portal, credentials.mlb.com, or contact the Twins directly.

CREDENTIALS

Full season credentials will be issued for 2023 regular season games at Target Field to media who will cover 70 percent of Twins home games. BBWAA cards and Gold Cards will be accepted for the 2023 season; cardholders are not required to notify the Twins in advance but are asked to do so. Daily credentials are also available and single-day credential requests must be submitted online through credentials.mlb.com at least 24 hours ahead of the requested date. No other credential requests will be accepted, via email or otherwise. The application deadline for each day will be 5:00 p.m. CT the day before. If media members are approved for a daily credential and cannot attend, please notify the Twins Communications staff as soon as possible. By submitting a request and receiving a media credential for access to Target Field, a media member will be required to observe all MLB and Twins rules. Credentials are not transferable and are subject to terms and conditions. The Twins also reserve the right to designate credential access to media.

MEDIA ENTRY/PARKING

Media will pick up credentials and enter through the Target Field Media Entrance, located off Target Plaza between Gates 29 and 34. The media entrance will open three hours before first pitch for day games and 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games. The Twins do not provide gameday parking for media; media are recommended to park in the various City of Minneapolis parking ramps adjacent to Target Field, namely Ramps A, B and C, and the Hawthorne Ramp.

PRESSBOX ACCESS

The Herb Carneal Pressbox is located on Level 2 at Target Field, near the Delta SKY360° Club. Seating charts will be in effect for select games with high media capacity and media are asked to follow the charts when posted. Every game, priority seating access will be given to affiliates who routinely cover the Twins and/or the opposing team.

MEDIA DINING

The Twins Room, located on the Service Level (-2) near the Press Elevator, will be open for media dining during the 2022 season. It will open one hour prior to gates opening, stay open until game time and cost $13. Cash will not be accepted.

INTERVIEWS

Most interviews may be conducted on the field during batting practice where the manager, players and coaches are usually available, as long as the interview does not interrupt their pre-game routine. Members of the media must stay in foul territory between first and third base. In-depth interviews that require more time with a player should be pre-arranged through the Twins Communications department. Reporters and broadcasters must leave the field, with photographers reporting to their assigned photo positions, no later than one-half hour before game time..

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Clubhouse access will be limited to members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) and to coverage reporters of area daily newspapers, radio and TV stations. The Twins clubhouse will be open to media with clubhouse credentials until one hour prior to each game and then reopen no longer than 10 minutes following each game; pregame clubhouse timings could vary, so please check with a member of the Twins Communications department for precise timings. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse at any time. On the occasion of a team meeting, the clubhouse will be closed until the conclusion of the meeting. Clubhouse access is limited to the player-locker area and the manager's office. The training room, dining room and weight room are off-limits to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and Twins officials. The dugout is off limits during the game for everyone except the manager, coaches, players, trainers and certain Club officials.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Printed materials (game notes, rosters, lineup sheets, statpacks, etc.) will be available in both the Twins Communications Office and pressbox on gamedays. These materials will also be electronically disseminated to media when available and can be found on twinspressbox.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND VIDEOGRAPHERS

Due to a limited number of on-field photo spots, the first and third base photo wells are limited to local newspapers, wire services, Twins photographers and whomever is assigned for that particular game. As an alternative, the Twins can provide designated photo positions around the concourse. Photographers assigned to the on-field locations should remain in the photo wells at all times during the game. Photographers in the photo wells should leave or change locations between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers must remain on the dirt in foul territory, between first and third base. No photographs are to be taken from the baseball pressbox. The Target Field photo workroom is located on the Service Level (-2) down the Media Field Access Tunnel near the Baseball Communications Office.

LEE COUNTY SPORTS COMPLEX

The Twins will spend their 33rd spring training season in Lee County at the Lee County Sports Complex in 2023. Spurred by their first year in the state-of-the-art facility, the Twins won the 1991 World Series after enjoying their most successful Spring Training camp in history as they posted a record-high 21 wins. In the 32 years, the Twins have drawn at total of 3,232,950 fans over 475 dates, (total does not include 17 replacement games in 1995 – 49,240 fans).

In the aftermath of Hurricane Ian in 2022, the Twins, in partnership with the Boston Red Sox, gave a financial contribution to five Lee County-based nonprofits to assist with their relief and recovery efforts. The two clubs donated a combined $200,000, with half going to the Collaboratory (formerly the Southwest Florida Community Foundation), and the remaining half distributed equally amongst the Harry Chapin Food Bank of Southwest Florida, Lee Health Foundation's SWFL Stronger Together employee relief fund, Foundation for Lee County Public Schools, Inc. and Community Cooperative's Lee County Strong relief fund. The Twins also hosted first responders for 60 days following the hurricane, which included EMS, National Guard, Public Safety and the World Central Kitchen. The World Central Kitchen made more than 1 million meals and the academy served as the staging area to assist residents in the wake of the disaster.

Located south of the city of Fort Myers near Interstate 75, the Lee County Sports Complex is the spring training home to the Twins and their six minor league affiliates. The centerpiece of the facility is an 8,730-seat stadium in which the major league Twins play their exhibition games and conduct some of their daily workouts. The complex also features five full practice fields and two half-fields.

On August 3, 2004, the Twins signed an extension with Lee County for use of the complex through 2020, and on November 6, 2012 the Lee County Board of County Commissioners approved a $42.5 million renovation and a new 30-year lease. Also in 2012, the Twins named their infield drills field "Tom Kelly Field" in honor of their former manager. Combined with the Twins contribution, the total for the renovations increased to $48.5 million. The renovations prior to the 2015 season increased the seating capacity to 8,730 and include a new party deck, expanded gift shop and an outfield boardwalk around the playing field to create a 360-degree walk-around the stadium, similar to Target Field. The plan also renovated previously existing concession stands, restrooms, suites and press box areas. The project was designed by Populous out of Kansas City, MO, with designed assistance by Parker Mudgett Smith, based out of Fort Myers, FL, and was constructed by Manhattan Construction.

A signature feature of the renovated facilities is the Twins Player Development Academy which includes a 58-room residence hall for players and staff, dining facilities, recreational spaces, meeting rooms, educational classrooms and Champions Hall, a 220-seat tiered theater used by players and staff for meetings, conferences and presentations throughout the year. The Academy contains state of the art technology, Wi-Fi throughout and high-tech video systems for player instruction for both major league and minor league players.

In addition to the Player Development Academy, the entire minor league building was renovated including expanded clubhouse with new lockers for players and staff, new 1,800 square foot training room, high tech video facilities, expanded office space and a new game field for the minor league teams.

The major league facility, team and player upgrades include new athletic training and strength and conditioning rooms, new lockers for players and staff, dedicated dining room space, state-of-the-art video facilities and complete renovation of all office and meeting rooms. The overall project earned the Twins the Ballpark Digest's Best Major Renovations of 2015.

Continuing the renovations at Hammond Stadium prior to the 2016 season, Lee County and the Twins added a shade structure along the leftfield line of the Boardwalk and a permanent serving area on the 4th floor Sky Deck.

Installed prior to 2017, the old scoreboard was replaced with a new full-feature LED video board. The screen measures 18' x 35' and was installed by Daktronics of Brookings, SD. Additionally, the GCL Twins home playing field was named "Bill Smith Field" in honor of the former Twins General Manager and in 2018 a practice field adjacent to the main stadium was named "Stelly Field" in honor of longtime Twins coach Rick Stelmaszek, who passed away the previous year.

The LCSC is home to two Twins minor league affiliates, housing

both the Fort Myers Mighty Mussels of the Low-A Southeast League, West Division and the Rookie Level Florida Complex League Twins.

The main stadium was renamed Bill Hammond Stadium late in the 1994 spring season in honor of the longtime Deputy County Manager who was instrumental in getting the complex approved and bringing the Twins to Lee County.

Major league home and visiting clubhouses are included in the stadium proper, and complete facilities for the minor league teams are contained in a building adjacent to their playing fields. Prior to the start of the 2005 spring training, a 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art fitness training room and conference center was built next to the minor league facility.

The major league club's administrative offices are located in the stadium, with the minor league administrative offices in the building adjacent to its fields.

The facility also features a four-field softball complex and other athletic facilities for use by Lee County organizations and visiting amateur baseball and softball teams, plus an 11-acre water-management lake.

The Twins trained in Orlando, FL, from 1936 through 1990 (with the exception of the war years of 1943, '44 and '45, when they conditioned in College Park, MD) and their minor league clubs moved to Terry Park in Fort Myers in 1990, after headquartering in Melbourne, FL, from 1964-89. The entire organization was united for the first time in Lee County in 1991.

The Sports Complex, an $18.2 million undertaking, was completed in February, 1991. Lescher and Mahoney, an architectural and engineering firm based in Tampa, FL, was the lead architect for the project, with design assistance from Ellerbe Becket of Kansas City, Missouri. Case Contracting Company of Plant City, FL, was the contractor.
